HOW TO FILE AN AMENDED COMPLAINT

What is an Amended Complaint?

A plaintiff may file an amended complaint to make changes from the original complaint. The Court will replace the original complaint with the amended complaint. Once the amended complaint is filed, the original complaint is no longer valid.

Some reasons a party to file an amended complaint include:

- Add a new party; change an incorrect party to a correct party; or correct a spelling error in an individual or business name.
- Add new facts;
- Change wording to better explain the claim;
- Change the dollar amount of the claim, especially if the amount increases. Or
- Include exhibits.

What do I need to do to file an Amended Complaint?

Enter the names and addresses of all parties at the top. If you are making changes, enter all of the names, including the new names, or any other changes. Include the case number.

Explain your claim. The amended complaint replaces the original complaint so the information you want the court to consider must be included. Enter the amount of your claim in the blank.

All plaintiffs must sign the amended complaint.

If you are filing less than one week before your court date, you must get permission from the magistrate assigned to your case.

What is the cost to file an amended complaint?

The fee to file an amended complaint is $20.00. The Clerk of Court accepts cash, checks, money orders, or credit cards (VISA or MasterCard.) Fees are payable to "Franklin County Municipal Court" or "FCMC."

How are the parties notified of the amended complaint?

When you file an amended complaint, each party has to be served with the summons and the new complaint. Usually service is by certified mail, but you may use one of the other methods of service listed below. In some cases, the trial may be postponed to ensure that the new party has a fair amount of time to receive the summons and to prepare for trial.

The costs for service of process are:

- Certified mail to each defendant, $6.00 for each defendant;
- Residence service (hand delivery by a court bailiff to anyone age 16 or older at the defendant's place of residence) within Franklin County or the City of Columbus, $25.00 for each defendant;
- Personal service by a court bailiff to a defendant at a place of your designation within Franklin County or within the City of Columbus, $25.00 for each defendant.
- Out-of-county sheriff service (hand delivery by the sheriff in the county where the defendant resides), $41.00 deposit for each defendant.
